Follow-Up Questions

1. Which shape represented the “whole” and what does that mean?

2. How many different fractions can you create using the hexagon as the whole and triangles as parts?

3. Could you make another polygon the whole? What shape or shapes could you use to show parts of this whole?