

Lights, Camera, Action: Perseverance!

Task 3: Exploring Perseverance in Every-Day Life

Activity 4: Prove It

Directions:

Using all of the evidence you have gathered through Kyle's website materials, create a two to three paragraph proposal identifying who the target audience would be if the director selects Kyle's story for the film. Use evidence from your research to support your opinion.

Create a two to three paragraph proposal identifying who the target audience would be if the director chose to select Kyle's story for the film. Use evidence from your research to support your opinion.

Student answers may vary:

Students must touch on a plausible audience, such as teens, athletes, amputees, adults, people with disabilities and other people who have or want to overcome physical and societal obstacles to pursue their dreams. Students must support their answers with textual evidence found through the introductory video, biography, or other resources.