

SUPER SUMMARIZER

Name:

Date:

Book:

Reading Assignment:

Your Job: Your job is to prepare a brief summary of today's reading. The other members of your group will be counting on you to give a review of the reading that conveys the gist - the key points, the main highlights, the essence – of today's reading assignment. Begin by marking a key events for every 2 pages you read. When you are finished, pick the five most important key events and write them below. Use the key events to develop a summary of at least 8 sentences. Make sure you tell Who, What, When, Where, and How. Include a strong beginning sentence that tells chapter & setting.

Use the following checklist:

title, author, topic    my own words    time-order words    clear/easy to read
 key events/setting    correct order    concluding sentence    enough information

While you read Key points or events:

-
-
-
-
-

After you read Summary:

Discussion Directions: When your group meets, first read your summary of the chapter. Second, ask if anyone can think of other key events that you may have missed.