Reading Assignment:

Your Job: Your job is to draw pictures related to the reading. It can be a sketch, cartoon, diagram, flow chart or scene. Any kind of drawings or graphics relating to the assigned reading are acceptable as long as you color neatly, label things and include characters, setting, and details from the story. Include one sentence with each picture that explains the event/conflict/setting that you chose to illustrate.

Discussion Directions: When it is your turn, you show your first picture WITHOUT COMMENT to the others in your group. First, you are to ask everyone to guess what your picture means. They should connect the drawing to their own ideas about the reading. See if anyone can find the location in the text that relates directly to your illustration. Second, after EVERYONE has had a say, you get the last word; tell them what your picture means to you. Do this for all 4 during your meeting.
