

Name _____

Date _____

Commas in a Series II

Commas are used to divide lists of things within a sentence. Commas are also used to divide consecutive adjectives.

Example: The big, scaly dragon ate the knight, the princess, and the unicorn in one bite.

Rewrite each sentence using commas to divide words that come in a series or consecutive adjectives.

1. Bruno is afraid of bunnies kittens and puppies.

2. Mary put pickles olives and mushrooms in the brownies.

3. The big yellow school bus was full of cows.

4. It was not a good idea to throw the big wet sponge at the teacher

5. Carlos brought a stapler a blender and a dictionary to summer camp.

6. Jenny took her pet piglet to the movies the supermarket and the ice cream shop.

