Dear Social Studies Teacher,

Now in its 62nd year, the United States Senate Youth Scholarship Program offers an outstanding opportunity for exceptional student leaders. Here in Pennsylvania, the Pennsylvania Department of Education (PDE) works collaboratively with the Pennsylvania Association of Student Councils (PASC) to administer the program.

Sponsored by the William Randolph Hearst Foundation, the program features an all-expense paid, week-long program (March 2-9, 2024) in Washington, D.C., as well as the award of a $10,000 collegiate scholarship to each of two student delegates from each state. More information regarding this program can be accessed at <https://ussenateyouth.org/>.

Complete rules of eligibility, and all information you, and your student representative, need to successfully complete the online application, can be found at <https://www.pasc.net/senateyouth>. We ask that you please carefully review the selection criteria to ensure your student meets the eligibility requirements as established by the Hearst Foundation. Ineligible students will not be considered for this program under any circumstances.

Please disseminate the information regarding this program as soon as possible, as time is of the essence. Your Principals, School Counselors, Student Council and National Honor Society Advisors, Junior and Senior Class Advisors, and JROTC Directors may be particularly interested in the program. Only ONE student may represent your school, and the signature of the school principal is required on a separate form to certify that the student represents your school. Additional selection rules can be found on our website.

The application must be submitted no later than October 6, 2023. While we ask that all materials be submitted electronically, information on mailing or emailing materials separately are also on our website. As students are required to write several essays and obtain letters of recommendation, we suggest you do not delay in getting this process underway.

As the Pennsylvania Coordinator for the Hearst Foundation, please contact me with questions regarding the application process. The best way to contact me is at senateyouth@pasc.net, and you may also contact me at 412-221-4542 x603 if you need assistance.

Thank you for helping to make this program a continued success in the Commonwealth, and best wishes for a successful school year.

Respectfully yours,

Felix J. Yerace
