Introduction to O-Net
(http://online.onetcenter.org)

Please go to the website above and select “Find Occupations.” You can enter each occupation listed below in the bar labeled “Keyword or O-Net Source Code.” Find the information listed below:

1. Name the O*Net Source code for Epidemiologists:

   ________________________________.

2. Identify three tasks that are identified with the occupation of Veterinarians:

   a. ___________________________________________

   b. ___________________________________________

   c. ___________________________________________

3. Identify two skills needed for Lawyers:

   a. ___________________________________________

   b. ___________________________________________

4. Name one knowledge area that is needed for Dentists, General:

   ___________________________________________

   ___________________________________________

5. Name five abilities of Athletes and Sports Competitors:

   a. ___________________________________________

   b. ___________________________________________

   c. ___________________________________________

   d. ___________________________________________

   e. ___________________________________________
6. List two work activities for Motorcycle Mechanics:

a. ___________________________________________

b. ___________________________________________

7. Name an interest for Coaches and Scouts:
   ___________________________________________
   ___________________________________________

8. Name two related occupations for Taxi Drivers and Chauffeurs:

a. ___________________________________________

b. ___________________________________________

9. What are the median wages for Morticians, Undertakers, and Funeral Directors:
   ___________________________________________

10. What is the projected growth for Educational, Vocational, and School Counselors:
    ___________________________________________

11. What is the number employed for Police Patrol Officers:
    ___________________________________________

12. Name five abilities of Accountant:

a. ___________________________________________

b. ___________________________________________

d. ___________________________________________

d. ___________________________________________

e. ___________________________________________
13. Identify three tasks that are identified with the occupation of Registered Nurses:
   a. __________________________________________
   b. __________________________________________
   c. __________________________________________

14. Name one area of knowledge that is needed for Electricians:
   ____________________________________________
   ____________________________________________

15. Name the O-Net Source code for Child Care Workers:
   ________________________.

17. List two work activities for Education Administrators, Elementary and Secondary School:
   a. __________________________________________
   b. __________________________________________

18. What are the median wages for Waiters and Waitresses:
   ____________________________________________

19. Identify two skills needed for Refuse and Recyclable Material Collectors:
   e. __________________________________________
   f. __________________________________________

20. Name the O-Net Source code for Municipal Fire Fighter:
    ________________________.

21. Find a career that interests you: ________________________

22. What is the O-Net Source Code for that Career: ________________________
23. What are the median wages for that career: __________________________

24. What is the projected growth for that career: __________________________

25. Do you think that O-Net is useful? Why or why not?
   ___________________________________________________________________
   ___________________________________________________________________
   ___________________________________________________________________