

Social Contract

RE: Mr. Berzonski's American Cultures I classes

The purpose of this contract is to create and maintain a learning environment which students are receiving the best education possible. The undersigned agree in principle to the provisions listed below:

- A. (Student Expectations) The teacher will:
- 1. give advanced notice of tests (at least one day, but usually one week).
 - 2. review before test, if necessary.
 - 3. limit amount of homework on weekends.
 - 4. avoid tests on Mondays, if possible.
 - 5. provide help for ANY student having ANY questions/difficulty.
 - 6. administer no more than one "pop" quiz per 9-week period.
 - 7. respect students and fellow teachers.
- B. (Teacher Expectations) Students will:
- 1. be prompt to class (prior to 1st bell) and be seated when bell rings.
 - 2. have book covered at all times. Books may be checked and scored randomly.
 - 3. come prepared for class (have book, pen/pencil, folder and notebook).
 - 4. participate in classroom discussion.
 - 5. hand homework in on time. You will get one oooops and then...
NO LATE WORK WILL BE ACCEPTED.
 - 6. keep absences to a minimum and be responsible for work upon return.
 - 7. attempt to do their best at all times.
 - 8. respect teacher/fellow students and school property.
- C. If for any reason, a student or the teacher doesn't follow the provisions listed above, the appropriate action will be taken at the discretion of the teacher/students.

Teacher: _____

Date: _____

Class: _____

* student signatures on back ****